WHAT ABOUT IT.

Uncle Sam is going into the printing business, and already he is sending out advertising matter telling of the fine class of work that is being done in the government printing offices, and advising all people who have letters to go through the mail to patronize the government printing offices.

This is a good thing, too, and the people should study into the matter, especially those people who are friends of the working man, and the printers, especially. Here you pay your pro rata for the keeping up of the government and the carrying on of its affairs, at the same time you should patronize the government printing offices that are working in competition with the various printing offices of the country. They can do it in a manner that will soon put the business houses of the country out of commission, if it is allowed to continue.

When the private business houses of the country wish to do any advertising they are compelled to pay postage on all that they send through the mails, but this is not the fact with the government houses, as they frank their advertising matter, and if they fall behind in the matter, why, you can just pay a little bit more to carry on the government.

There is not a printing house in the country that would not be pleased to receive an order from you, and stamped at that. While they are turning out this work for you they are at the same time spending some of that money in the home town, and helping you in your business.

What do you get from the government printing houses? Have they a good word for you when you have done something worthy of notice? Do they tell the people all about it when your eldest cuts his first tooth? Do they lie about you when you have shuffled off this mortal coil? No, sir; they do not. What about it? Are you going to turn down a home industry because the printing office that Uncle Sam maintains in Washington wants to do a little work to keep some favored politicians in office?—Carson News.

YOUNG LEISER'S BODY RECOVERED

DISCOVERED FLOATING DOWN THE RIVER NEAR GLIDE'S LANDING.

SACRAMENTO, July 10.—Loosed from the brush on the river banks by the wash from a San Francisco bound steamer, the body of Ashley Leiser, a young man formerly of Goldfield who was drowned while swimming near the Sacramento boat club on Monday afternoon, floated to the middle of the stream and was noticed by the crew of the steamer Pride of the River, bound for this city early yesterday morning. A small boat was lowered and the members of the crew of the river steamer secured the body and made it fast to the river bank near Glides' landing, notifying Coroner Gormley upon the arrival of the steamer here, as to the location of the body.

Constable William Russell of Yolo, with S. Hurlbert and J. Meyers were deputized by Coroner Gormley to bring the remains to this city, and returned with the body in a launch, late yesterday afternoon. Leo Leiser, the father of the drowned youth, arrived in this city from Goldfield yesterday morning, and with the boy's uncles, Les and Charles Sternberg, will take the body to San Francisco.

COLONEL BROWNE TO MAKE HIS HOME IN RENO

RENO, July 10.—Col. Ed. F. Browne, of Aspen, Colorado, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Woodbridge, have come to Reno to live and are settled comfortably in the Turley house.

Colonel Browne has achieved an enviable reputation as an authority on transportation questions. He made the favorable report that induced the Santa Fe company to interest themselves in the construction of the Tonopah and Tidewater railroad, and advocated the construction of the road the Union Pacific is building from Wyoming to northwestern Colorado.

FIRE AT RENO.

(By Associated Press.)

RENO, July 10.—The large abattoir refrigerating plant of the Humphrey Supply company at the city limits of Reno was totally destroyed by fire at noon today. Loss to the plant amounts to $7000.

FUNERAL OF BLAKE IS LARGELY ATTENDED

John McCaffery returned yesterday from Virginia City, whither he went to attend the funeral of his late friend, Pete Blake, which took place on the Comstock Friday morning. He reports that the funeral was largely attended and that the condition of Mrs. Blake, mother of the deceased, is considered serious, it being feared that she will never recover from the shock attendant upon hearing the news of the death of her son. Speaking of the funeral, the Virginia Chronicle says:

"The body of the late Pete Blake was taken from the residence of his parents this morning to St. Mary's church, where a solemn high requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. The funeral took place immediately after mass and was headed by a large delegation from the Comstock Aerie of Eagles. A long line of carriages containing relatives and friends followed the hearse to the cemetery. Rev. Father Murphy conducted the services both at the church and the grave."

ELKS HAVE MOVED INTO THEIR NEW QUARTERS

The local lodge of Elks has moved into its new quarters in the Solender building. From now on all the functions of the antlered brotherhood will be held there. The lodge room is nicely furnished, while the banquet hall is one of the finest in the state. Every convenience has been provided for the members of the local lodge as well as sojourning brethren.

St. Mark's.

Fifth Sunday after Trinity, July 11: Morning prayer, 11 o'clock. Sermon: "Sanctification and Service." Evening prayer, 6 o'clock. There will be no sermon at this service, which will be entirely choral, and the hymns will be those familiar to all. A hearty invitation is extended to all to join in this short service of praise and thanksgiving. Sunday school, 10 a. m. Lloyd B. Thomas, rector; M. L. Griffith, lay reader.

FLORENCE (Colo.), July 9.—Florence is in the throes of a veritable ice famine. Owing to the wash-out on the Rio Grande the city has been deprived of ice since Monday and the shortage has occasioned considerable distress.

SALINAS (Cal.), July 10.—One man was killed and two injured fatally by the premature explosion of a blast in the Stone canyon coal mine, seventy-five miles south of here.

ELKS WILL JOURNEY TO SOUTHLAND

This morning a number of Tonopah Elks will leave for Los Angeles to be present at the big celebration which is to take place in the southern California metropolis next week. The Tonopahs will join the Goldfield bunch in the latter town from which point the Nevada members of the order will be taken in a special car.

The Elks of southern Nevada will form one of the best showings in the grand parade which is to be a feature of the celebration. They are prepared to shout long and loud for the sagebrush state and will do this section much good in the way of advertising its virtues.

BANK SALOON ONE OF THE BEST IN THE STATE

The Bank saloon has recently undergone many marked improvements which make of it one of the finest thirst emporiums in the state. The room formerly occupied by the Golden Jewelry company is now a part of the saloon and has added much-needed space. The decorations are the very best, representing a large outlay of money. Under the very capable management of Haffer and Drysdale, the business is one of the best in Nevada.

The gaming rooms are particularly attractive. Phil Allen, the manager of that department, will likely add more games. Phil is a sporting man who deals on the square. The result is that the men working for him are kept busy all the time catering to the wants of those who enjoy the pastime.

MISS KIRCHEN PROVES TO BE CLEVER ENTERTAINER

Miss Florence Kirchen entertained a few of her friends yesterday at a bridge party. Following the games a dainty luncheon was served to which the following ladies sat down: Misses Claire and Winnie Tarpey, Miss Mollie Mears, Miss Dorothy Tragloan, Miss Florence Kirchen and Mrs. Tom Kendall. During the lunch, Mrs. Kirchen entertained the younger folks in a highly laughable manner by impersonating an Italian butler. The first prize in the bridge game went to Miss Mollie Mears, while Miss Dorothy Tragloan captured the honors that went to the one making the poorest score.

MANHATTAN MAN ON HIS WAY TO SOUTHERN COAST

E. T. Shields, a mining man of Manhattan, was an arrival in Tonopah yesterday from the camp of which so much is being said of late. He is on his way to southern California, where he will enjoy a few weeks' recreation.

Mr. Shield is of the Manhattan optimistic club. He is fairly convinced that the camp will eventually resolve itself into a great producer of the yellow metal. While the placers are just now attracting the largest amount of attention, the quartz developments are going steadily ahead and much is being accomplished along those lines.

ITALIAN KILLS WOMAN.

Early Friday evening in Reno, in the Tuscan hotel dining room, Fortunato Tarsitano fired a bullet into the heart of pretty Maria Fara, a waitress, killing her instantly. Jealousy was the cause.

BOXING MATCH.

Tonight at the Big Casino, Sid Humphries and Burt Murry will engage in another boxing match to determine who is superior in the game. On July 5th Murray was knocked out by Humphries in four and one-half minutes. However, he is not satisfied with the way the fight went and believes himself capable of taking Humphries' measure. The fight promises to be a lively one.
